So hector was like barrett, a griefer who evolved. Interesting.

So HBGary paid $183 or $200/hr for that tripe? And she billed ... $20k? $40k?

Mantech got the parent on fire sale a few months back. Nobody knows what happened to Barr - he's obsessed about it, we'll see if he come after me now that lulzsec is gone. I pulled the torrent + wrote about it, but I suppose that make me a bad guy, too

AND as far as her not getting paid? Lets ask HBGary about that shall we? It would seem HER husband negotiated the contract with HBGary for the information on anonymous and according to 3rd parties Jen cleaned her twitter timeline of her claims to making $183 an hour. Also you may be interested to go through the dumps from UgNazi of her hacked accounts where her invoice to the Feds was rejected as "too high".

Backtrace Security was NEVER Jen's company, it was started by Kevin/Hubris as a JOKE. She lied to various people about this guy claiming hes some sort of drug addict & SHE contacted HIS family defaming him to them all because she was pissed at him for giving her drama self the boot. Hubris WILL tell you the company was started by HIM not her Research the paperwork on it, shes merely named as an officer, he was the owner.

Oh & before I forget the FIRST message of that log I'm featured in was a threat from JEN to myself & my boyfriend. However I'm thrilled that someone is actually stupid enough to believe I

This is what I sent to the Gizmodo piece author ...

Just read your piece on Jen Emick. I have a back channel text convo going with her - I'm a subject, I guess, I wrote the study based on HBGary email that led to the Congressional call for investigation. Using her deductive methods, I must have ordered the intrusion. I also talk with @Bitchiest aka Kelly Hallisey.

I was so impressed with Jen's behavior that I felt the need to write. What I see, public and private, is a woman addicted to drama, a person who is a source of some information to me, but her value is that she is made aware of things that are happening, and she tweets about them. I don't trust her interpretations, because she takes whatever she sees, and makes it about her.

I can't attest to this paste from Kelly, but she manages to be coherent (and funny), while neither of those apply to Jen, unless you're really into cringe humor.

A sample of the threats levelled at Ms Emick on an almost daily basis by Anonymous and its fans. Picture: Twitter, via Gizmodo

"It shows though the lengths they'll go to," said Ms Emick.

"The only thing it takes for Anon to go against you is to criticize them. Especially if you refuse to back down."

Ms Emick told Gizmodo the harassment of her family was upsetting, but it's clearly not enough for her to back down - Gizmodo reported Ms Emick was midway through bringing down another hacker.

She has no intention of stopping. Despite the collateral damage to her uninvolved loved ones, Ms Emick is enjoying herself.

"It's challenging. I love finding stuff. Also, it's fun to outsmart criminals who think they're clever."

With attacks on children from one side, and seeming indifference of it from the other, observers are finding it difficult to have sympathy with either side of this bitter, vendetta-fuelled fight.

ADD YOUR COMMENT ON THIS STORY

This is a straight up press release by Jen Emick, professional attention seeker. She didn't dox Sabu, he was well known for IRC/defacement work in prior years. Someone recognized him but largely kept it quiet. Emick learned his identity and staked her whole career on being the one who found him.

Midway through bringing down another hacker? She's midway through getting blocked by everyone because they're tired of watching her harass the person who actually doxed Sabu. This "bringing down" could better be described as "failing to set up".

You have an email address attached to this post. We'll be happy to provide additional information on this merchant of fail.

e-dating? Meh, I am taking her off the list - constant chatter I ignored after the first day. She's a spacer between Jen's goofiness.

I am doing quite good health wise, best I've felt since I got Lyme in 2007.

The nuttiness is out of control online though - do some Google searches:

"Brandon Darby" site:pastebin.com

"Lee Stranahan" site:pastebin.com

Darby is the swatter, and they are all going stark raving mad with fear because no one believes their theories any more and the feds have been stimulated by that letter from 85 House offices. How fucking stupid do you have to be to pull something like that?

To: Kelly Hallissey <brat@observers.net>

Jen seems to be the new secret source for @BrooksBayne & <http://thetrenches.us> - I spoke of seeing things the average bear does not due to being backup editor for natsec on PCN, she totally took the bait. This is now TREASON, this business of reading obscure news and sending the good bits to Congressional staffers :-)

This needs triple checking obviously, as she could have just passed the text to someone else who is the super duper secret source, but I think not - she and "Michelle Lessick" are two peas in a pod, we thought we'd have to push them together, but I think they've found each other already and they're now a self-referencing vortex of stupid.

There are a lot of other things in motion here due to Brandon Darby being the swatter, and a major blowup between the Breitbots (@Patterico, @Liberty_Chick, @stranahan, @brandondarby) and @BrooksBayne & <http://thetrenches.us> is under way. We also found that Ali Akbar @Ali is @KarlRove's boy toy - it's really nasty business and starting to pick up steam :-)

So, how do we best humiliate her?

I have someone who is familiar with UGnazi who says they have information on one of the group that's been doing swatting. This is Kelly Hallisey - she wants to talk to you, and I think this is good - she's mid 40s, long time IRC operator, she's got logs for days, she knows everyone ...

Do I just email both of you by way of introduction?

For Daniel's sake:

Mike Stack, John Patrick Frey, Erick Erickson - the voice on these false report calls is definitely Brandon Darby, and this makes sense not only for voice match, but for associates, motivations, etc, etc. This is the one I am focused on and it goes deep into the 2012 election. I'm not sensing a lot of interest from the bureau if the source of this stuff isn't "potentially violent anarchists", and it's a strategic move from the fringe right, so we've been feeding what is found to some journalists.

Jen has information on some people in that nest of snakes in IRC that is separate from what I have on Darby. Not sure what's going on with this one, that's her observations.

I didn't get swatted in 2010 because I conceal my address, but I did get a rash of threat calls made into the Springfield, Illinois area using a phone number from my business cell account, and I believe this was a consolation prize in lieu of a police visit. I have a persona I like for this, a "beandog" - a young man with connections to members of SomethingAwful.com and/or 808chan.org. I have some information on where this person and the rest of his crew hang out on the EFnet IRC network, but I never nailed it down. Kelly would be an excellent resource on this, but I've sat on the info I have so the trail didn't get muddied by Brandon Darby and associated smear artists.

Subject: Got a source of swattings from Anonymous

I have someone who is familiar with UGnazi who says they have information on one of the group that's been doing swatting. This is Kelly Hallisey - she wants to talk to you, and I think this is good - she's mid 40s, long time IRC operator, she's got logs for days, she knows everyone ...

Do I just email both of you by way of introduction?

Brandon Darby Swatting Calls

There are four false police reports I find particularly interesting, because they seem to be tied to an extortion attempt by Mike Grimm, Congressman from NY-13, an obstruction of justice attempt intended to deflect attention from James O'Keefe, and the whole thing is being wrapped up by Hynes Communications in an attempt to create another "Bill Ayers" for the 2012 election.

Mike Stack – Montgomery Township, June 23rd 2011:

Stack was used to push the message that a New York Democrat was going to have a sex scandal starting around the beginning of May 2011 and he was left holding the bag for what happened to Anthony Weiner. He was a liability after Weiner's June 16th resignation, particularly since the news came out June 18th that the "teen girls" Weiner had been talking to were entirely fabricated. The false report seems calculated to shut him up.

A false report was made and the voice of the source seems to be Brandon Darby. This YouTube video is a composite of three false report calls and interview audio of Darby.

The underlying motivation for the Weiner stalk/smear is his reporting of Grimm's extortion attempt in the fall of 2010.

John Patrick Frey – Los Angeles, June 30th/July 1st 2011:

Frey engaged former Raw Story editor Ron Brynaert in a call that straddled the midnight hour June 30/July 1. During this time there was an alleged false report made on him, again the voice is Brandon Darby. Frey banned Lee Stranahan from his blog, patterico.com, within about 36 hours. It should be noted that Darby and Stranahan own <http://darbystranahan.com>. Frey has been a vocal defender of James O'Keefe.

The best source for picking this apart is Lane Lipton aka @qritiq. She's dug deeper into the details of the event's timeline, Frey's shifting, implausible explanations, and his use of an audio forensics expert to try to pin it all on Brynaert.

My read is that Darby and Stranahan did this on their own initiative, Frey was furious about it, but that he realized he was in deep and attempted to help with the cleanup by shifting the blame to Brynaert. Ron can't make a false report call to save his life – he had a mental breakdown in the fall of 2010 and is incapable of remaining lucid during phone calls – I spoke to him once, and it was 30 seconds of me trying to answer questions and five minutes of him yelling at me.

Erick Erickson – somewhere in Georgia, May 27th 2012:

Erickson wrote about swatting, motivated by a conflict between Brett Kimberlin and Robert Stacy McCain. He also happened to contact his local sheriff's department and warn them that such a thing was likely. A false report call, again the voice of Brandon Darby, was made. He tweeted about it, two minutes later he had a short blog post about it, and then he was off and promoting the smear – claiming Nothing new here in terms of facts, but there are some screen shots of WBC stuff from last year, all of 'wise', and I got Radian6 output of his stream right before clean up, as well as mentions. This is suitable for posting to pastebin -it's all CSV, just gotta whack the descriptive first few lines in order to import. Have fun ...
